

Selection of Library Materials

Policy

The Director of the Altamont Free Library is responsible for the selection of acquisition of an print and non-print materials to form a core collection that meets the informational educational and recreational needs of the community

Procedure

Requests to consider selection of materials may be submitted to the Director, but not the final responsibility for selection rests with the Director.

Adopted June 9, 1996

Revised January 14, 2008